OFFICE OF COUNCIL PRESIDENT PRO TEM MONICA MONTGOMERY STEPPE
OFFICE OF COUNCILMEMBER RAUL A. CAMPILLO
OFFICE OF COUNCILMEMBER VIVIAN MORENO

M E M O R A N D U M

DATE: February 25, 2022

TO: Haley Lesser, Director of Legislative Affairs, District 9

FROM: Council President Sean Elo-Rivera, District 9;
Council President pro Tem Monica Montgomery Steppe, District 4;
Councilmember Raul A. Campillo, District 7;
Councilmember Vivian Moreno, District 8

SUBJECT: Joint Nomination of Danielle Moore to the San Diego Unified Port Board of Commissioners

Council President Sean Elo-Rivera, Council President pro Tem Monica Montgomery Steppe, Councilmember Raul A. Campillo, and Councilmember Vivian Moreno Are proud to nominate Ms. Danielle Moore to the San Diego Unified Port Board of Commissioners.

Born and raised in San Diego by a military veteran and a small business owner, Ms. Moore's strengths, background, professional experience, perspective, and talents make her an optimal candidate for Port Commissioner.

Ms. Moore's wealth of experience includes the following:

- Advised public and private companies through all stages of growth and in transactions that include mergers and acquisitions, securities offerings, joint ventures and debt and equity financings.
- Represented publicly held companies with their reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and with NASDAQ, NYSE and other exchange listing and compliance matters, including those involving FINRA.
- Provided pro bono services to minority entrepreneurs and mentored female law students.
- Represented Oncocyte Corporation (NYSE American: OCX) in connection with its acquisition of Insight Genetics, Inc., a leading molecular diagnostics company.

Additionally, Ms. Moore serves on the board of directors of The New Children's Museum, is a member of the San Diego Chapter of Women of Renewable industries and Sustainable Energy and served in the Black Prosecutors Association of Los Angeles. Furthermore, she received a Bachelor of Arts from Stanford University and a Juris Doctor from Howard University School of Law.

As a renewable energy attorney, who manages multi-million dollar transactions, Ms. Moore is well positioned to assist the Port with investments in solar energy, advancements in shore power, and expanded installation of electric vehicle charging stations and microgrids. She plans on leveraging her professional experience, as the Port seeks greener and cleaner energy sources through large state and federal infrastructure investments. She has the skills, experience, and intelligence to ensure the Port charts a path forward where economic growth and environmental justice are seen as complimentary, rather than mutually exclusive. Our offices are collectively honored to nominate Ms. Danielle Moore as a Port Commissioner as she will play an integral role in contributing to the economic vitality, equity, and overall community benefit to the Maritime industry of the Port of San Diego and the entire San Diego region.

DANIELLE MOORE
2022 CANDIDATE FOR APPOINTMENT TO BOARD OF PORT COMMISSIONERS

Danielle Moore is an attorney, who specializes in renewable energy and business transactional law. She graduated from Stanford University with a Bachelor of Arts in English and she earned a Juris Doctorate from the Howard University School of Law, where she received the Dean's Merit Scholarship. Practicing law for almost a decade, Danielle has used her legal and business skills not only to help clients at the internationally-recognized law firms where she has worked, but also to serve our community.

Danielle serves on the board of directors of The New Children's Museum and is a member of the Nominating and Governance Committee. She is a member of the San Diego Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., the San Diego Chapter of Women of Renewable Industries and Sustainable Energy, and the Earl B. Gilliam Bar Association. She also provides pro bono services to minority entrepreneurs and mentors female law students.

As a renewable energy attorney, who manages multi-million dollar transactions, Danielle is well positioned to assist the Port with investments in solar energy, advancements in shore power, and expanded installation of electric vehicle charging stations and microgrids. She is eager to leverage her professional experience, as the Port seeks greener and cleaner energy sources through large state and federal infrastructure investments.

Danielle hopes to work with the Port Commissioners, staff, stakeholders and you to:

1. secure investments in clean energy to provide greater health equity,
2. remove procurement and employment barriers and advance diversity and equity goals,
3. promote accountability and transparency through strong corporate governance practices,
4. work with labor and businesses to create and protect jobs and modernize the Port, and
5. provide pandemic relief and identify pathways to safe and lasting economic recovery.

Born and raised in San Diego by a military veteran and a small business owner, Danielle lives in Mission Valley with her family. She enjoys impromptu dance parties with her five-year-old, cooking creative meals with what is available in the kitchen, and raising two goldfish, Bubble Balm and Rainbow.
